ALA Scholarship Recipients: Where are They Now?

'Army brat' childhood brings perspective on big picture

Jake Nikkila spends his days working at the U.S. Department of Defense, studying how chemicals in the body of service members respond to high stress situations, in an effort to better the rehabilitation process for veterans.

Nikkila serves American heroes in a unique and instrumental way, and he had no shortage of inspiration in doing so.

His grandfather served in the U.S. Navy, and his father, still active duty, served most of Nikkila's childhood. Though moving every few years could be seen as an obstacle for many people, Nikkila credits it with helping him become more social and adaptable, as well as teaching him important life lessons.

Jake Nikkila celebrates graduating with an undergraduate degree in biochemical engineering from Clemson University

"I think being an Army brat really gives you a lot of perspective on life and the big picture," Nikkila said. "Being able to learn what's important, it's not just about yourself but helping society and the world."

But one obstacle Nikkila didn't expect to face as a result of his military upbringing was paying out-of-state tuition for college. Having just moved, he didn't qualify for in-state tuition anywhere, meaning any college he chose would be thousands of dollars more than if he had lived in the state for two years before attending.

Though this gave Nikkila more freedom in his choice of school, he knew it would come with a major price tag – that's why he went looking for scholarships. Luckily, he had attended American Legion Boys State in high school and was given a list of scholarships he could apply.

He applied for and received the American Legion Auxiliary Children of Warriors National Presidents' scholarship in 2015. It was the largest scholarship he received and made a sizable dent in his first year of tuition at Clemson University.

"It was such an honor to receive this scholarship," Nikkila said. "I thought it was a long shot, but the money upfront really helped me get through."

Nikkila graduated in December 2019 debt-free with a degree in biochemical engineering, concentrating in biomaterials and minoring in physics.

Over the years, Nikkila and his family members have received lots of support from The American Legion Family. He credits scholarships like those offered through the American Legion Auxiliary for helping him be able to follow his dreams.

"I just want to say 'thank you' to those who donated; that means the world to me,"

Nikkila said. "It was four years of making ends meet, but I got through it, and I hope to eventually give back when I am able."

For now, he plans to give back to our nation's heroes through his career.

"While I didn't choose the military route, I still chose a route in bioengineering that I can use in some way to give back to the world through research and innovation,"

Nikkila said. "Scholarships like this make that happen."

Support incredible military youth like Jake Nikkila by donating to ALA National Scholarships. You can donate online at www.ALAforVeterans.org/Donate or mail a check to ALA National Headquarters, 3450 Founders Road, Indianapolis, IN 46268 and put "ALA Scholarships" in the memo line.

Veterans in Virtual Community Schools

The American Legion Auxiliary has a long history of collaborating with its schools for the Veterans in Community Schools program. As Auxiliary members, we can promote this program in the current virtual learning climate. It is never too early in our students' education for them to learn the history, accomplishments, and stories of our Veterans. By seizing this opportunity to record our Veterans' actual words and artifacts, we accomplish the Auxiliary mission and allow future generations to learn about Veterans visually.

In expanding this program to include virtual recording, this will allow not only our Veterans in the community but also our Veterans in the Veterans Administration's hospitals and extended care facilities to participate in this program. The Auxiliary collaborating with the Legion family will make this a very successful virtual learning experience. There are multiple approaches to procuring Veterans to participate in the program. As Auxiliary members, we have constant contact with family members who served our country, Legionnaires, and other Veteran service organizations; ask them to record their stories. These can be our World War II Veterans who would love to record their stories, and these are stories that should be recorded for future generations of students. Lastly, many of our students desire more than what is taught in schools to expand their knowledge of history. These students have a passion for hearing stories directly from our Veterans to understand the realities of war better.

All that the Virtual Veterans in Community Schools requires to be successful is a Veteran and computer, laptop, or phone with audio, video, and internet capabilities for Google Meet, Zoom, or any other virtual means. During this COVID-19 pandemic, virtual classrooms for kindergarten through 12th-grade students are now the norm. Veterans' virtual visits to the classroom allow students to listen to their stories illustrated with the Veteran's pictures, scrapbooks, letters, and medals. Additionally, the Veteran can see the students, answer and ask questions, and hear the students' comments while being recorded for viewing by other classrooms and future generations.

Work with your schools to incorporate a Virtual Veteran in the Community Schools with a Veterans Oral History Project. Provide the schools with the information from the Library of Congress Veterans History Project (www.loc.gov/vets/) for students in 10th grade and above. The project website provides sample interviews, scripts, release forms, background resources, and ways to establish a website to showcase the students' work. Following the project's guidelines, a student's interview submission may be placed in the project's database. Also, collaborate with schools in your community to virtually incorporate the History Channel's Take a Veteran to School Day (www.history.com/teacher-resources), a popular HISTORY® initiative, which "encourages schools to connect veterans with young people to hear their stories of service and learn more about Veterans Day. These events can range from a simple one-class visit with veterans to an all-school assembly. Register for this free program and view sample agendas and a wealth of free curriculum resources".

Our world is continually evolving; however, it is our history from which students will learn how to lead our country into the future. Veterans can inspire our students and will provide the knowledge the students need to involve themselves in service to our country and our Veterans, which will last throughout their lifetime and help grow our organization. Through our service, students, parents, and the community learn who we are, what we do, and why we matter. Members participating in Virtual Veterans in Community Schools within their communities are building awareness of the mission of the American Legion Auxiliary while also serving as brand advocates.

Education

I hope everyone is ready and prepared for the fast-approaching holiday season. Don't forget to remember the children and area schools during this special time. Please go online and print copies of the scholarship applications to pass out to your local schools as soon after Christmas Break as possible. If you are actively using Facebook, you can find our new department education page at ALA KY Education. It is my vision to be able to use this page as a public-facing platform for every unit and district in our state to showcase the work they do year-round for the Education program. I plan to add resources to this page and would like to see everyone submitting pictures and narratives as often as they are able, which I can then use to build my reports from. That being said, I need to receive mid-year reports no later than Dec 15, so I can get the report from KY sent to Southern Division on time. Remember this year we are reporting for last year as well. Any pictures you can email me as well will be helpful. If you prefer to mail a paper copy, my address is:

I will be having sinus surgery on Nov 13 and if all goes well, hopefully, will be back to myself and doing the good work once more within a few weeks after that.

Thanks everyone and keep up the good work. I am so proud of the wonderful things our units have continued to do even though we are all facing trying and uncertain times. Our school districts, teachers, and students alike have all had to adapt to the circumstances we are in, and our units have done the very same.

God bless you all.

Before you buy a bunch of gifts for family and friends try asking them what they might need. Maybe they need help with bills or rent. Maybe they need a kid free night to enjoy themselves. Maybe they need a night off from cooking give them a homemade meal. Maybe they need gas for their car or a ride somewhere. Maybe they need a friend to talk and listen. Maybe they need help in some other way but are just too scared or embarrassed to ask for help.

Hope everyone is staying safe and has a Merry Christmas and wonderful rest of this year

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY CHILDREN & YOUTH

SOUTHERN DIVISION NEWSLETTER – DECEMBER 2020

Hello ladies of the Southern Division,

Christmas may look a little different this year, but I am sure we can all be thankful knowing that so many of our nation's heroes and their children were positively impacted because you ladies overcame all the challenges this year and continued to find a way to support our Children & Youth program. Virtual Christmas parties have taken the place of traditional gatherings – UNLESS you come up with a plan like our very own Anselma Obremski, Children & Youth Committee Vice Chairman. She has helped organizing a Polar Express themed Holiday Party for special needs children of active duty military members. The party will be a drive through with a parking lot turned into a train line with 3 stations. This particular parking is shaped like a sideways C with an entrance at one end and exit at the other. Families will enter get checked in and proceed to station 2 where each child will receive a bag. The bag will contain a coloring book crayons a picture of Rudolph, hot cocoa graham crackers and fruit snacks and cookies. All are pre-wrapped. It also contains a card from the ALA Department of MD. At station 3 the children will receive a gift from Toys for Tots and the siblings will receive a gift card from the American Legion and SAL. Also, every family will get an envelope of membership info. What a great way to support the families and also get out information on our great organization.

Many families need help this Christmas. Have you thought about holding a food drive? I saw the Reversed Advent Calendar suggestion on Facebook the other day and thought it would be a great idea to get a box of food together for families who face challenges this upcoming holiday season.

I noticed that the Department of Florida is also encouraging their members to utilize this calendar.

Christmas is not all about fancy wrapped gift under the tree. It is not the presents that make Christmas so special, it is the presence of those you love, whether they are with you in person or spirit. Let's keep the families in our prayers who have an empty chair at their dinner table this year.

No matter how you are celebrating the holiday season, remember, the best gifts are not material things but gifts of listening, showing kindness, remembering, visiting, and giving of time.

Thank you for all you do to work our programs and take care of our children and youth.

May you have a peaceful holiday season surrounded by your love ones.

Stay safe.

Dec. 2020

As the number of positive COVID-19 cases continue to rise in Indiana and specifically in Marion county where the national headquarters is located, our employees who can and want to work from home will be doing so starting next week until the end of the year. The staff showed amazing resourcefulness and creativity during the state shutdown earlier this year and I am confident they will continue to provide seamless service to our members and implementation of our programs no matter where they are located.

ALA turned 101 on Nov. 10, but we are still celebrating!

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the ALA's centennial year was extended and will be celebrated at the 2021 National Convention. Meanwhile, you can still hold centennial celebrations in your units, districts, and departments! Share your pictures with us by tagging #ALA100Celebration on social media.

One of the greatest joys of this season is the opportunity to say THANK YOU and to remember and honor those who are no longer with us and cherish those who are. I wish you the absolute best this Christmas and happiness for the New Year.

Christmas Tree Safety

As you deck the halls this holiday season, be fire smart. A small fire that spreads to a Christmas tree can grow large very quickly.

Picking the tree

Choose a tree with fresh, green needles that do not fall off when touched.

Placing the tree

- Before placing the tree in the stand, cut 2” from the base of the trunk.
- Make sure the tree is at least three feet away from any heat source, like fireplaces, radiators, candles, heat vents or lights.
- Make sure the tree is not blocking an exit.
- Add water to the tree stand. Be sure to add water daily.

Lighting the tree

- Use lights that have the label of a recognized testing laboratory. Some lights are only for indoor or outdoor use.
- Replace any string of lights with worn or broken cords or loose bulb connections. Read manufacturer’s instructions for number of light strands to connect.
- Never use lit candles to decorate the tree.
- Always turn off Christmas tree lights before leaving home or going to bed.

After Christmas

- Get rid of the tree after Christmas or when it is dry.
- Dried-out trees are a fire danger and should not be left in the home or garage or placed outside against the home.
- Check with your local community to find a recycling program.
- Bring outdoor electrical lights inside after the holidays to prevent hazards and make them last longer.

FACTS

- More than one of every four home Christmas tree fires is caused by electrical problems
- Although Christmas tree fires are not common, when they do occur, they are more likely to be serious.
- A heat source too close to the tree causes one in every four of the fires.

I hope everyone has stayed safe & well, but some have been hit hard. Hurricanes and wildfires have caused a great deal of damage this year, and there is no shortage of Auxiliary members facing disaster. It is times like these when the Auxiliary Emergency Fund is the difference between suffering and survival. Donate now to the AEF and ensure your fellow Auxiliary members are never alone in their time of greatest need. If you have been affected by a disaster, apply to the AEF, and get the assistance you need.

Thanks for the reports I have received so far. I know these are trying times and we are all doing the best we can. I thank you for all that you do for our military, veterans, and your communities.

December 2020 Membership Bulletin

Hello Auxiliary Family,

We are so proud of everything you do! Congratulations to all the Units for working hard on their membership! We are at 57.7% for the 2021 membership year! Hopefully Team Kentucky will be at 100% for National Convention! Congratulations to unit 46 Danville for being the first unit to have 100% membership. We are asking all units to completely go through their entire roster. If you have members on your roster who have not paid their dues for a while or you have elderly members you have not checked in on, please do so. Also, please make sure your members do not have more than one Member ID number and their last names and addresses are correct. Now is an essential time to ensure all your member's dues are current, so they have access to all their member benefits.

Please check in on your members, Veterans and their families and also continue to work on collecting 2020 and 2021 dues (renewals, rejoins and new members)!

National will be sending out emails to members who have not paid their dues from 2017 forward. You may be contacted from some former members to rejoin. (If they were a former member, please add them as a rejoin, not a new member. By doing this, they will still have the same Member ID number.

The Membership Team will continue to reach out to units and check in. We would like to remind all units to make sure their Leadership contact information on ALAMIS is correct. We need a contact email and/or phone number for membership for each unit. When we contact you, please respond, it may be that we are simply checking in on your unit. Also when you have deceased members please notify the Department Secretary and Chaplain, so it can be documented in Department. Please make sure all your members are informed that they can pay their dues online @ alaforveterans.org, by phone to National 1-317-569-4564 or by paying to their unit and the unit sending dues and transmittal to Department. Do not send any paperwork to National because it needs to go through Department.

Tools are in place to help you at; alaforveterans.org and our Department Membership Facebook page @ ALA Dept. of KY Membership. If you need help or have questions please feel free to reach out to the Membership Team!

Be kind, find your joy and include all members!
